Chapter 24. Zoning

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 24-2. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them by this section:

A

Accessory apartment, attached. A separate, complete housekeeping unit that is substantially contained within the structure of, and clearly secondary to, a single-family dwelling. The accessory apartment may not occupy more than 35 percent of the floor area of the dwelling.

Accessory apartment, detached. A separate, complete housekeeping unit that is incidental to and located on the same lot occupied by a single-family dwelling. The detached accessory apartment may not occupy more than 50 percent of the floor area of the accessory structure.

Accessory building or structure. A subordinate building or structure customarily incidental to and located upon the same lot occupied by the main use or building. With the exception of detached accessory apartments, as may be approved by a special use permit, No such accessory building or structure shall be used for housekeeping purposes. Garages or other accessory structures such as carports, porches, decks and stoops attached to the main building shall be considered part of the main building. Accessory buildings and structures located ten feet or less from a main structure shall be considered part of the main structure for the purpose of determining side and rear yards. (Refer to the definition of “structure.”)

Dwelling unit. One or more rooms in a dwelling designed for living or sleeping purposes, and having at least one kitchen. For purposes of this chapter, attached and detached accessory apartments shall not be considered dwelling units.
