Chapter 24. Zoning

Board of Supervisors
James City County, VA

Article I. In General

Sec. 24-2. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them by this section:

M

Manufacture; manufacturing. The assembly of components, pieces or subassemblies, or the processing or converting of raw, unfinished materials or products into articles or substances of different character or for use for a different purpose.

Manufactured home. A manufactured home is a structure subject to federal regulation which is transportable in one or more sections; is eight body feet or more in width and 40 body feet or more in length in the traveling mode, or is 320 or more square feet when erected on-site; is built on a permanent chassis; is designed to be used as a single-family dwelling, with or without a permanent foundation, when connected to the required utilities; and includes the plumbing, heating, air conditioning and electrical systems contained in the structure.

Manufactured home park. A lot or parcel, not part of a manufactured home subdivision, on which are located or which are arranged or equipped for the accommodation of three or more manufactured homes occupied as single-family dwellings.

Medical clinic. An establishment where patients are admitted for examination and treatment by one or more physicians, dentists or psychologists and where patients are not usually lodged overnight. "Medical clinic" includes a facility known as surgical outpatient clinic.

Micro-brewery. A brewery that produces less than 15,000 barrels per year.

Mixed use structure. A building or other structure containing a combination of two or more different principle uses.

Mobile food vending vehicle (food truck): A self-propelled or towed vehicle licensed by the Department of Motor Vehicles containing a mobile kitchen in which food and beverages are stored and/or prepared and from which menu items are served in individual portions to walk-up customers.

Mobile home. A mobile home is a structure not meeting the specifications or requirements of a manufactured home, designed for transportation, after fabrication, on streets and highways on its own wheels or on flat bed or other trailer, and arriving at the site where it is to be occupied as a dwelling complete and ready for occupancy except for minor and incidental unpacking and assembly operation, location on jacks or permanent foundations, connection to utilities and the like. (See "trailer" and "travel trailer" following in this section.)

Monopole. A wireless communication facility tower used to deploy antennas defined as self-supporting with a single shaft of wood, steel or concrete.

and ready for occupancy except for minor and incidental unpacking and assembly operation, location on jacks or permanent foundations, connection to utilities and the like. (See "trailer" and "travel trailer" following in this section.)

Monopole. A wireless communication facility tower used to deploy antennas defined as self-supporting with a single shaft of wood, steel or concrete.

Motel. One or more buildings containing individual sleeping rooms, designed for or used temporarily by automobile tourists or transients, with garage or parking space conveniently located to each unit. Cooking facilities may be provided for each unit.

Multi-antenna system. Wireless communication facilities networked together and connected to a wireless service source so that one or more multiple provisioning (high-powered) antennae which would normally be mounted on a tower to serve a given area are replaced or prevented by a group of lower-power antennas to serve the same geographic area.

Multiple provisioning antenna. Antennas used as part of an overall network such as distributive antenna systems that transmit and/or receive radio signals from multiple points and multiple users in a prescribed geographic area.
