

January 4, 1974

At a reconvened meeting of the Wetlands Board held in the Courthouse, Williamsburg, Virginia, on the fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and seventy-four, there were present: MRS. CARY FUQUA, Chairman; MR. LEONARD HARRIS, Vice Chairman; MRS. MARGARET HARRISON.

After reviewing the tape of the last meeting, Mr. Harris moved that the permit be granted provided that any damage, whether seen or unforeseen, must be corrected by VEPCO either by revegetating the marsh or any other means satisfactory to all concerned. This was seconded by Mrs. Harrison and passed unanimously.

There being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting was adjourned.
