

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, in the proud tradition of our rich heritage, Virginia's volunteers continue to be our most valuable resource; and

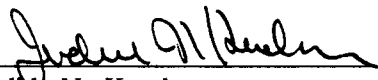

WHEREAS, volunteering is an undisputed part of the essence of our country and is essential to its social and civic life; and

WHEREAS, the partnership of individuals, the public sector and the private sector is the most efficient and effective atmosphere for the development of volunteer resources to address the needs of the community and delivery of services; and

WHEREAS, citizen participation cannot be measured in dollars or in numbers, that only those who have been helped can describe the influence volunteers have had on their lives; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of James City County are deserving of recognition for their commitment and hard work in improving the quality of life for all James City County residents by providing services that might otherwise not be provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the James City County Board of Supervisors, James City County, Virginia, hereby designates the week of April 18 - 24, 1993, as Volunteer Appreciation Week and calls its significance to all of our citizens.
