

RESOLUTION

SUPPORTING EFFORTS TO ATTRACT A NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION TEAM

TO HAMPTON ROADS

WHEREAS, the Hampton Roads Partnership's strategic plan, adopted in 1999 and reconfirmed in September 2001, includes tourism as one of eight issues; and

WHEREAS, the pursuit of a major league baseball or basketball team is included as a strategy in the strategic plan; and

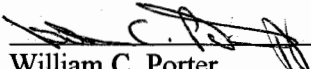

WHEREAS, the City of Norfolk is proposing to bear the full financial obligation without any anticipated revenues from the Hampton Roads localities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of James City County, Virginia, does hereby support and endorse the effort to attract a National Basketball Association team to the Hampton Roads region, and encourages the residents and the business community to do likewise.
