MEMORANDUM

DATE: August 26, 2011
TO: The Board of Supervisors
FROM: Robert C. Middaugh, County Administrator
SUBJECT: Declaration of a Local Emergency - Hurricane Irene

As the County Director of Emergency Management, I, Robert C. Middaugh, hereby declared a local emergency at 8:30 a.m. Friday, August 26, 2011, due to the imminent threat of Hurricane Irene.

This declaration of a local emergency was necessary to coordinate local government response for the public safety of citizens and visitors to James City County. The Code of Virginia requires that the Board confirm the Director's declaration within 14 days of its issuance. A resolution confirming the declaration is attached.

After the conditions have been mitigated, a resolution declaring an end to the local emergency will be prepared.

RESOLUTION

DECLARATION OF A LOCAL EMERGENCY - HURRICANE IRENE

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors of the County of James City, Virginia, does hereby find as follows:

1. That due to the imminent threat of Hurricane Irene, the County of James City is facing a condition of extreme peril to the lives, safety, and property of the residents of James City County; and
2. That as a result of this extreme peril, the proclamation of the existence of an emergency is necessary to permit the full powers of government to deal effectively with this condition of peril.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of James City County, Virginia, that a local emergency now exists throughout the County of James City.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that during the existence of this emergency, the powers, functions, and duties of the Director of Emergency Management and the Emergency Management organization, and functions of the County of James City shall be those prescribed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the ordinances, resolutions, and approved plans of the County of James City in order to mitigate the effects of said emergency.
